

PASTORAL COUNCIL MINUTES – Jan. 8, 2020

Fr. Braden's Report:

- Deacon Jeff is recovering and wants to be back and very eager for him to be back. Prayers have been greatly appreciated.
- Father Braden discussed the use of Facebook for sharing information about St. Charles and wanting to share information with the community.
- Inviting Seminarians from Indianapolis, Bishop Simon Brute College, to serve Mass and to meet with the children of our parish who are servers.

Ministry Fair planning is in full swing and are hoping for great responses from our parish members at the end of January. Information about the different ministries in our parish will be available to our members earlier in the month.

Youth Report:

- Spiritual
 - * Religious Ed. classes begin again on the 12th of January, youth Mass each month, and plans for camp in June.
- Service
 - * Took down Christmas decorations at Camp New Hope, helped with Epiphany Dinner, and volunteering in Catholic Charities this month is TBA.

Thank you to everyone for your help, participation and enjoyment at the Epiphany Dinner! The gifts for the Crisis Pregnancy Program were greatly appreciated.

If anyone is interested in being a part of the Pastoral Council let the office know

Meeting minutes submitted by: Amy Jackson